

Native American Community Board
EEO Statement

With respect for diversity being one of our core values the Native American Community Board is committed to being an equal opportunities employer. We treat each other with respect and dignity and expect everyone to promote a sense of personal responsibility. We recruit competent and motivated people who respect our values, provide equal opportunities, protect their development and advancement, protect their privacy and do not tolerate any form of harassment or discrimination. Therefore, employees must not discriminate on the basis of origin, nationality, religion, race, gender age or sexual orientation, or engage in any kind of verbal or physical harassment based on any of the above or any other reason. Employees who feel that their workplace does not comply with the above principles are encouraged to raise their concerns with the Administrative Director.
